The Hadza, or Hadzabe, are an ethnic group in north-central Tanzania, living around Lake Eyasi in the central Rift Valley and in the neighboring Serengeti Plateau. The Hadza number just under 1,000. Some 300–400 Hadza live as hunter-gatherers, much as their ancestors have for thousands or even tens of thousands of years; they are the last full-time hunter-gatherers in Africa.

The Hadza are not closely genetically related to any other people. While traditionally classified with the Khoisan languages, primarily because it has clicks, the Hadza language appears to be an isolate, unrelated to any other. The descendants of Tanzania's aboriginal hunter-gatherer population, they have probably occupied their current territory for several thousand years, with relatively little modification to their basic way of life until the past hundred years.

Since the 18th century, the Hadza came into increasing contact with farming and herding people entering Hadzaland and its vicinity; the interactions were often hostile and caused population decline in the late 19th century. Since then, there have been many attempts by successive colonial administrations, the independent Tanzanian government, and foreign missionaries to settle the Hadza, by introducing farming and Christianity. These have largely failed, and many Hadza still pursue virtually the same way of life as their ancestors are described as having in early 20th-century accounts.

DAY 8  SERENGETI

We continue to explore the central areas of the Serengeti. We are able to explore game-filled plains and try to spot the Big Cats lazing among the kopjes.

NAONA MORU CAMP (Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner)

DAY 9  SERENGETI

An extension on areas already discovered allows today to be in pursuit of even more prime wildlife. It is a convenient access point for an optional Serengeti Balloon Safari or simply enjoy a private dinner under the stars of the Serengeti.

NAONA MORU CAMP (Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner)

DAY 10  SERENGETI-TARANGIRE

An exciting return transfer through the rugged terrain of the Great Rift Valley outskirts and the archeological site of Oldupai Gorge ensues breakfast today. And we arrive to Esilalei Maasai Village for afternoon walking amongst the Maasai and then onto the luxury camp. The remoteness of this camp ensures intimacy and a classical bush experience.

TARANGIRE NDOVU TENTED LODGE (Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner)

DAY 11  TARANGIRE-ARUSHA

We enter Tarangire for game driving and exploration of this wilderness as we learn animal behaviours and natural habitats from local experienced guides. We transfer to Arusha after lunch for Craft Market Exploration and safari de-briefing.

ILBORU SAFARI LODGE (Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner)

DAY 12  ARUSHA-BEYOND

We make a timely transfer to Arusha departure point for travel beyond.
